ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Mike Roberts, the lead author of this report, is a Principal Analyst with Informa Telecoms & Media. His research areas include mobile networks, mobile broadband, LTE, WiMAX, Wi-Fi, wireless VoIP, fixed mobile convergence and IP Multimedia Subsystem.

Mike's primary outputs include Informa Intelligence Centres and strategic reports, including WiMAX Broadband Convergence: Emerging Fixed, Portable & Mobile Internet Markets, Mobile Networks Forecasts: Future Mobile Traffic, Base Stations & Revenues and the previous editions of Future Mobile Broadband. Mike has been tracking emerging mobile, wireless and fixed markets since 2000, when he started contributing to Informa research services such as 3G Wireless Broadband and Telecom Markets. He regularly presents and chairs at key industry events and provides comments to the press on mobile broadband, convergence and other topics.

Dr. Dimitris Mavrakis is an Associate Analyst with Informa Telecoms & Media and specialises in telecoms development, having undertaken many projects as a senior analyst. He is the leading or co-author of several of Informa's strategic reports, including Mobile Broadband Access at Home, WiMAX Broadband Convergence, IMS Opportunities and Challenges, Future Mobile Computing and Wireless Automation.

Dimitris has also completed several research projects on behalf of Informa Telecoms & Media and has a broad background in telecoms and IT, including business, strategy and technical issues. He has over five years' experience in the telecoms market and has previously played a leading role in several UK and global research contracts during his academic career.

Richard Jesty is the author of numerous Informa Telecoms and Media reports. He is an Associate Analyst with a focus on mobile technology and mobile content and services worldwide. Richard has worked in research-based IT and telecoms consultancy for 16 years, and has gained first hand experience of vertical industry needs and requirements, especially in the service sector (covering the retail/distribution and financial services industries).

Richard's recent reports for Informa include WiMAX Broadband Convergence, Managed Services: New strategies for outsourcing, network sharing, hosting & consultancy, Mobile Content & Services, Mobile Distribution & Retail and Mobile Enterprise.
