The definitive reference source for the global multichannel TV market

- Who are the best people to contact about the increasingly important IPTV sector?
- Want to know how digital TV is progressing in the Middle East and Africa?
- Need to know who is the new SVP of Programming at the Cartoon Network in the US?
- Unsure of who provides the latest TV technology across the globe?
- Do you need help tracking developments in the ever changing European cable business?

It's a big challenge keeping up with the "who's who" of the ever-evolving multichannel TV market, so the Cable and Satellite Yearbook 2008 is the essential information resource that every industry executive should have access to.

Available as either a searchable pdf or in hardcopy format, you will find hundreds of cable and satellite operator listings with full contact details. We provide subscriber numbers, information on IPTV and DTT services, plus market analysis, statistics and data on a global level across 191 countries.

The 2008 yearbook contains:

- Contact details for more than 10,000 broadcast industry executives
- Approx 600 cable company listings
- In excess of 400 pay TV contacts
- Contact details for more than 200 regulatory bodies
- Details for 100 satellite TV companies
- Listings for more than 400 technology providers
